Everette "Reon" Fisher

Everette "Reon" Fisher, 85, of Macomb, formerly of Blandinsville, passed away at 12:45 p.m. on Thursday, January 3, 2013 at Heartland Healthcare Center in Macomb.

He was born on July 27, 1927 in Blandinsville to Raymond and Fronie Britton Fisher. He married Dorothy Bourn on October 28, 1950 in Hernando, Mississippi. She passed away on December 19, 1993.

He was also preceded in death by his parents; one daughter and one son both in infancy; one brother, Ronald "Dean" Fisher and one sister, Lucille Terry.

He is survived by one daughter, Laura Fisher of Macomb and three nephews, Alan Terry of Caspar, Wyoming and Jeremy and Tyler Fisher of Macomb.

Everette lived in Blandinsville for many years before moving to Macomb in 1979. He worked for King-Sealy Thermos for 35 years, retiring in 1986. He then worked for Farm King for 18 years. He announced football and basketball games at Northwestern High School and ran the chain gang for Northwestern football.

He was a member of the Macomb Eagles Club, Macomb VFW, First Baptist Church in Macomb and Barbershop Chorus. He was an avid golfer, Cub fan, Bears fan and an all around sports fan.

He was a Navy veteran serving during World War II.

Funeral services were held Monday, January 7, 2013 at Clugston-Tibbitts Funeral Home in Macomb with Reverend Wally Holt officiating. Visitation was Sunday at the funeral home. Cremation rites were accorded. Private burial of ashes will be held at Glade City Cemetery in Blandinsville at a later date.

Memorials may be made to the Veteran's Memorial in Blandinsville, First Baptist Church Building Fund or MDH Hospice.
